NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 25th September, 1954

No. CS-92-208/53.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946, as delegated in the Government of India Notification No. 115 J, dated the 5th September, 1950, and all other powers enabling him in this behalf and with prior concurrence of the Government of India, the Lieutenant-Governor of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to make the following Order:—

1. (a) This Order shall be called "THE HIMACHAL PRADESH SEED POTATO CONTROL ORDER 1954" (Hereinafter referred to as the 'Order')

(b) It extends to the whole of District Mahasu of Himachal Pradesh.

(c) It shall come into force with immediate effect and shall continue to be in force till January 25th, 1955.

2. In this order, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:—

(a) 'Seed Potato' means all potatoes produced in Himachal Pradesh and harvested between 15th September and 25th January following.

(b) 'District Magistrate' means the District Magistrate of Mahasu District and includes any officer authorized by him for all or any of the purposes of this Order.

(c) 'Director of Civil Supplies' means the Director of Civil Supplies of the State and includes any officer authorized by him for all or any of the purposes of this Order.

(d) 'Dealer' means any person or firm or Joint Stock Company or a Co-operative Society ordinarily doing business of sale or purchase or storage for sale of seed potatoes in Himachal Pradesh and includes the Agriculture Department of Himachal Pradesh:

Provided that any producer of seed potatoes carrying his produce for sale to a dealer licensed under this Order or any consumer purchasing seed potatoes for his personal consumption, shall not fall within the definition of a dealer.

(e) 'Licence holder' means any dealer authorised under a licence issued under this Order to deal in seed potatoes.

(f) 'State' means Himachal Pradesh State.

3. (i) No person shall carry on business as a dealer in seed potatoes within the State except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a licence, in Form I in the schedule appended to this Order, granted by the Director of Civil Supplies or the District Magistrate.

(ii) The licence shall remain in force till 25th January, 1955.

(iii) The licence under this Order shall only be issued to such persons or dealers who have been engaged in business in seed potatoes for the last three years or the bonafide growers of seed potatoes for the disposal of their own produce:

Provided that the aforesaid restriction of 3 years shall not be binding on Co-operative Societies or the Agriculture Department of Himachal Pradesh.

4. Applications for licence under the Order shall be made to the Director of Civil Supplies or the District Magistrate in Form II in the Schedule to this Order.

5. The Director of Civil Supplies and the District Magistrate shall have, for reasons to be recorded in writing, the power to cancel, revoke, suspend or modify any licence granted under this Order.

6. A licence holder under this Order shall comply with all directions that may be issued generally to all licence holders in the area or to him specifically by the Director of Civil Supplies or the District Magistrate in regard to:—

Legislative Assembly

NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 27th September, 1954

In supersession of all the previous Notifications on the Subject.

No. LA. 109-171/52-I.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 12 of the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly Salaries and Allowances Act, 1952 the Government of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to make the following rules :—

- These rules may be called Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly Salaries and Allowances Rules, 1953.
- They shall come into force with effect from the 24th March, 1952.

2. In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context.—

- “Act” means Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly (Salaries and Allowances) Act, 1952.
- “Day” means a calendar day beginning and ending at midnight.
- The words and expressions used in the Act and not defined in these rules shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Act.

3. A member of the Legislative Assembly who is required to leave his usual place of residence, for the purpose of attending a meeting of the Assembly or transacting other business connected with his duties as a member, may draw—

- if the usual place of residence of a member is outside the station, he will be entitled to draw travelling allowance to and from the place at which the Assembly meets or other business is transacted from and to the headquarters of his constituency or from and to his usual place of residence, whichever is less;
- the allowances are admissible to a member who leaves his usual place of residence for the purpose of attending a meeting of the Legislative Assembly or of transacting other business connected with any sub-committee of the Assembly or meeting authorised by the Assembly;
- resignation from members shall be deemed to involve a loss of right of travelling allowance for the journey to the place of his residence if the journey was performed after resignation took place.

Note.—“Usual place of residence” means the place where a member generally resides for at least six months in the year. If the usual place of residence of a member is outside Himachal Pradesh the travelling allowance will be calculated as from and to the headquarters of the constituency from which he is elected or the usual place of residence whichever is less.

Explanation 1.—“Headquarters of a Constituency” shall be interpreted as under.—

- in the case of constituency comprising a part of district it shall mean the place by which the constituency is known;
- in the case of constituency consisting of parts of more than one district it shall mean the headquarters of any of such Districts.

Explanation 2.—Members whose headquarters of constituency or usual place of residence fall within a radius of 5 miles from the place of meeting of the Assembly or any other meeting authorised by the Assembly will not be entitled to any mileage or daily allowance.

4. (1) For intermediate absence, for less than 10 days during the course of a session or before the completion of the business, a member will be entitled to draw—

- if he remains at the place, with the permission of Speaker, where the Assembly meets or other business transacted, daily allowance for that period at Rs. 15 per day ; and

- (b) if he leaves the station he will be entitled to a single first class fare from the place where the Assembly meets to the Headquarter of his constituency or place of his residence and back.

(2) For absence of the duration of more than 10 days no allowance of any kind will be admissible.

5. When there is an interval of not more than a week before the termination of the meetings of a session or committee and the commencement of another committee or session at the same place, both of which a member is required to attend, and when such a member remains at the place during the interval he will be entitled to draw daily allowance permissible to him.

If, however, such a member leaves the place during the interval, his absence will be treated as an intermediate absence.

6. For the purpose of calculating travelling allowance, a journey between two stations shall be deemed to have been performed by the shortest of two or more practicable routes, or by such routes as may be equally short.

7. A member who claims any travelling or other allowance under these rules shall support his claims by a certificate to the effect that for the journey or the period to which the claim relates, he has drawn no allowance of the like kind from any other official source,

8. The Speaker when he undertakes a journey by rail for the purpose of assuming or relinquishing office shall be entitled to draw travelling allowance for himself and members of his family and charges incurred for transport of his and his family's effects at the rates admissible to 1st grade officers.

9. The speaker when he undertakes a journey by road or steamer for the purpose of assuming or relinquishing office shall be entitled to receive his actual travelling expenses for himself and the members of his family and the charges incurred for the transport of his and his family's effects provided he appends to his bill a certificate to the following effect:—

"I certify that I have actually paid the amount of this bill and that it does not include any charge for the freight of any stores or goods, other than my own family's personal effects or any charge for refreshment.

10. The Speaker when he undertakes a journey by rail on duty shall be entitled to draw travelling allowance for himself and charges incurred for transport of his personal luggage at the maximum rates permissible to 1st grade officers.

NOTE.—The nature of journeys to be treated as "on duty" the case of a Speaker is detailed below:—

- (a) A journey from or to his home in case he is residing elsewhere than the headquarters of the Assembly to preside over the Assembly.
- (b) A journey to attend a conference of Speakers of Assemblies in India.
- (c) A visit to venue of some other Assembly, Council or Legislature within India to study its procedure etc.
- (d) Journey to attend official functions to which he has been invited by Government.
- (e) Such other journeys of the same nature as might be certified by Government to have been performed in the discharge of duty.

11. The Speaker when he undertakes a journey by road or steamer on duty shall be entitled to receive his actual travelling expenses.

(See Note below rule 10 above).

12. The Deputy Speaker will be entitled to draw his actual travelling expenses for the journey from and to the place at which the Assembly meets or other business is transacted to and from the headquarter of his constituency or his place of residence during short intervals lasting for less than 10 days during the course of a session or before the completion of the business.
